(Affiliated to Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra (Haryana))

Annual Report: 2021-22

About the College

Babu Anant Ram Janta College, Kaul which was established in 1970 and was the first college affiliated to Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra following the path of its visionary founder, late Babu Anant Ram Ji, Ex-MLA in erstwhile State of Punjab and architect of this institution, late Ch. Ishwar Singh Ji, Ex-Speaker, Haryana Vidhan Sabha to disseminate quality education in educationally starved rural area. The college is situated in agrarian, rural and literary backward region of the village Kaul, the village of Arjun Awardee, International Volleyball player Late Sh. Balwant Singh, so craze for sports and games dominates the surrounding area. Babu Anant Ram Janta College, Kaul accredited with the grade B+ in 2003 in cycle-I accreditation and grade B with score 2.85 in 2016 in cycle-II accreditation by NAAC. This is spread over area of 44,402 sq.m. with architectural beautiful buildings, administrative block, fully computerized library, seminar hall, separate rooms for each faculty, well equipped laboratories of departments of Physics, Chemistry, Physical Education and Computer Science and banking facilities (three banks have branches in college campus). The college has one specially built volleyball and basketball stadium and another big stadium with playgrounds for other games to cater the needs of sports crazy people of the area. The institution has come a long way by striving hard to enrich our academic and administrative practices since its inception. In present changing scenario of global competitiveness, the college has adapted itself to the needs and relevance of education. Babu Anant Ram Janta College, Kaul switched on demanding courses by offering degree level courses of B.Sc. (Non-medical), B.Sc. (Physical Education, Health Education & Sports) and vocational course, Diploma in Physical Education (D.P.Ed.), in addition to its traditional courses of B.A. and B. Com.
