Late Babu Anant Ram Ji (1909-1990)
(Founder President)

Babu Anant Ram Ji was born in 1909 at village Kaul in an ordinary farmer family. He graduated in law at D.A.V. College, Lahore and remained member of Legislative Assembly (M.L.A.) from 1937 to 1946 in erstwhile Punjab State. Babu Ji laid foundation of Janta College Kaul and was unanimously elected president of this institution since 1970 i.e. from inception of this college till 1990. He realised his dream of imparting qualitative education in remote rural area by establishing a premier educational institute in his native village, as he was very much conscious of the fact that the designation of Babu Ji was spontaneously conferred on him only look at first sight when he returned from Lahore getting degree of graduation, which is the first of inhabitants of combined Karnal District.

Late Ch. Ishwar Singh Ji (1926-1998)
(An Inspiring Soul)

Ch. Ishwar Singh was born on November 5, 1926 at Village Satondi, District Karnal. He quit Government job for serving the masses of Pundri area. He spent his whole life in lighting the lamps of education by establishing a huge chain of reputed educational institutions in Pundri Constituency. He was elected M.L.A. from Pundri Constituency many a times, besides this he remained on prestigious positions as Chairman Haryana Marketing Board, Deputy Chairman of Planning Board, Haryana and Speaker of Haryana Vidhan Sabha from 1991 to 1996. He cherished his dream of women empowerment by establishing girls colleges in every town of his area. The people of Pundri area pay homage to this inspiring soul when they found the "Betti Paddi" at their doorstep.
