

Extension Lecture on the topic "Job Seekers to Job Creators - The Need of the Time"

August 23, 2023

An insightful extension lecture titled "Job Seekers to Job Providers - Need of the Time" was held on August 23, 2023, at Babu Anant Ram Janta College, Kaul (Kaithal) under the guidance of Principal Dr. Rishi Pal. This lecture was organised as the directions issued by Kurukshetra University, Kurukshetra. Entrepreneurship Development Club in association with Career Guidance and Placement Cell and Department of Commerce jointly organised this lecture. The lecture aimed to emphasize the shift from traditional job-seeking approaches to entrepreneurial endeavors, showcasing success stories that inspired the audience. The distinguished speakers for the day were Dr. Major Singh Khehra, Retired Principal, Guru Nanak Khalsa College, Karnal and Dr. K.D. Jha, Principal D.A.V College, Pehowa.

The event was facilitated by Dr. Nancy, while the vote of thanks was delivered by Dr. Prerna.

Opening Address:

Principal Dr. Rishi Pal initiated the lecture with a warm welcome to all attendees. He highlighted the importance of exploring alternative avenues for employment in an evolving job market. He emphasized that transitioning from being job seekers to job providers not only benefits individuals but also contributes to the growth of the economy.

Success Stories by Dr. Major Singh Khehra:

Dr. Major Singh Khehra, an accomplished entrepreneur and expert in business strategies, took the stage to share a series of inspiring real-life examples. He showcased how individuals and teams transformed their job-seeking aspirations into successful entrepreneurial ventures. Dr. Khehra highlighted iconic success stories such as MDH Masala, Ola Cabs, Diamond Snacks, and Sainsons Paper Mill. Through these stories, he demonstrated how innovation, dedication, and strategic planning can turn ordinary individuals into visionary job providers. Dr. Khehra's presentation underscored the fact that every business journey starts with a small step, and with perseverance, it can lead to significant accomplishments.

Encouragement to Explore Opportunities in India by Dr. K.D. Jha:

Dr. K.D. Jha, a distinguished personality, took the stage next. He urged students to consider exploring business opportunities within India rather than seeking employment abroad. Dr. Jha shared insights into the vast potential of the Indian market and emphasized the need for entrepreneurship to drive economic growth. He provided practical advice on identifying market gaps, understanding local consumer preferences, and leveraging India's diverse resources. Dr. Jha's session was filled with thought-provoking ideas that encouraged the audience to think beyond conventional career paths.

Introduction and Facilitation:

Dr. Nancy, assistant professor in commerce, as the event co-convener, introduced the two resource persons with enthusiasm. She highlighted their achievements and expertise, setting the stage for the engaging sessions that followed. Dr. Nancy's introduction helped establish the credibility of the speakers and fostered a receptive atmosphere among the attendees.

Vote of Thanks:

As the lecture concluded, Dr. Prerna, Head Department of Commerce, convener of the event, expressed gratitude on behalf of the institution. She thanked Principal Dr. Rishi Pal for his guidance and support in organizing the event. Dr. Prerna extended heartfelt appreciation to Dr. Major Singh Khehra and Dr. K.D. Jha for their insightful presentations, which provided attendees with a new perspective on career paths. She also acknowledged Dr. Nancy's meticulous coordination and efforts in ensuring the event's success.

Dr. Prerna's vote of thanks emphasized the importance of nurturing an entrepreneurial mindset and embracing opportunities to become job providers rather than relying solely on job-seeking pursuits.

Conclusion:

The extension lecture titled "Job Seekers to Job Providers - Need of the Time" held on August 23, 2023, served as an inspirational platform for students and faculty to explore the world of entrepreneurship. Dr. Major Singh Khehra's success stories and Dr. K.D. Jha's insightful guidance collectively emphasized the potential of converting aspirations into thriving businesses. The event was a resounding success, delivering its core message and inspiring attendees to consider entrepreneurship as a viable path for their futures.
