

Inauguration Ceremony of the New Administrative Building at Babu Anant Ram Janata College, Kaul

On December 26, 2023, celebrated the inauguration of new administrative building with a havan-yagna ceremony. The event was organized under the inspiration of the esteemed President of the college management committee, Chaudhary Tejvir Singh, and the direction of Principal Dr. Rishipal.

The ceremony commenced with Chaudhary Tejvir Singh, along with all management committee members, the principal, staff members, and alumni, offering floral tributes to the statue of the late Chaudhary Ishwar Singh. Following this, all attendees participated in the havan, offering oblations together.

The event was graced by numerous dignitaries and former students, including Manoj Bansal, Rajesh Kumar, Devendra Sonu Pundri, Pawan Kumar, Narendra Singh, Karandeep, and Amit Kumar Barani, who contributed funds towards the college's development initiatives. In recognition of their contributions, Chaudhary Tejvir Singh presented mementos to the alumni.

On this auspicious occasion, Mr. Daler Singh from Kanan Group awarded Principal Dr. Rishipal with the 'Shikshak Shiromani' award for his exemplary performance in the field of education. All guests and staff members extended their congratulations and best wishes to the principal.

Subsequently, the chairman of the college management committee and the principal honored Assistant Professor Dr. Brijendra Singh from the Department of Physical Education with a certificate of appreciation for his distinguished services.

In his address, Chaudhary Tejvir Singh congratulated and extended best wishes to the entire college staff. He remarked that the institution, planted as a sapling by the late Chaudhary Ishwar Singh and the late Babu Anant Ram, has now grown into a large tree, providing new direction in the field of education. He acknowledged the college family for their commendable efforts.

Principal Dr. Rishipal expressed his gratitude to everyone present. The event saw the participation of all members of the college management committee and staff members.
